The former Kaiser's love affairs are not running as smoothly as dispatches from monarchist headquarters in Berlin or his friends at Doorn profess. Not only are Wilhelm's sons still vigorously opposed to his marriage to Princess Hermine Schoenaich-Carolath, daily bringing up new arguments in an effort to persuade their parent to abandon his intention, but it now seems they have gained an opening wedge toward his separation in exile from his still youthful financee.

separation in exile from his still youthful flances.

The Princess, when the wedding was first announced, declared she would live in the Doorn house with her three youngest children, Princess Hermine, 12: Prince Ferdinand, 3, and Princess Henriceta, 4 years old.

The ex-Kaiser's sons at once declared that this being so, they would have no communication with the Doorn house, and his daughter, Princess Victoria Louisa immediately became the victim of a severe nervous breakdown, and pleaded deily in letters to her father not to permit the offspring of another woman to live at Doorn, in constant contact with dynastic affairs, while the children of the first marriage were forced to remain away, save for occasional visits.

As a result, the quondam Emperor already has yielded to their influence and Princess Hegmine's children will not be allowed to run through the stately corridors of Doornhuis, or play in the

Berlin Picture Theaters Close as Tax Protest

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—The motion Berlin, Sept. 23.—The motion picture fans of the German capital are being forced to seek other diversions, the pro-prietors of the cinemas having closed their houses in protest against the excessive amusement tax levied by the municipality.

Every picture theater in Greate Berlin locked its doors last night, or failed to open at the usual hour, the owners refusing to accept a reduction in the tax offered by the authorities in an effort at an eleventh hour compromise.

All the employees were dis-charged and most of them already have applied to the municipality for nemployemnt insurance.

Berlin, Sept. 23.—The wedding of former Kaiser Wilhelm to Princess Hermine of Reuss has been tentatively fixed for November 5, according to an announcement in well-informed quarters to-day. The ceremony will follow the procedure, prescribed by the Dutch civil law, since the Weimar constitution nullified the laws of the House of Hohenzollern.

Public lists have been op:ened in the shops at Potsdam for signatures of congratulation to the former Emperor.
